RESUME FOR RICHARD DOYLE

Richard Doyle was born in Sidney, Montana in 1946. He graduated from the United States Air Force Academy in 1969, with a Bachelor's Degree and a commission as a second lieutenant. He served five years as an Air Force intelligence officer, including a tour of duty in South Vietnam. He was awarded the National Defense Service Medal, the Vietnam Service Medal and the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal. After separating from the military, he received an MA (1976) and PhD (1984) in Political Science from the University of Washington.

Dr. Doyle has taught at the College of Idaho, Boise State University and the University of Portland. In 1986 he joined the staff of U.S. Senator Slade Gorton as Legislative Assistant for Defense and Foreign Policy. In 1987, he became Senior Analyst for Defense on the staff of the Senate Budget Committee.

Dr. Doyle joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School in 1990, as Associate Professor of Public Budgeting in the Administrative Sciences Department. He teaches, performs research and publishes in the field of the federal budget process, specializing in Congress and the defense budget.

He is a member of the Section on Budgeting and Financial Management of the American Society for Public Administration.
